COLONEL ANDERSON, ONCE OF MOBILE, DIES AT BALTIMORE

Baltimore, July 17.—Following an illness of several months, Lt.-Col. William D. A. Anderson, member of the staff of Maj.-Gen. Paul B. Malone, died late yesterday at a hospital here. He was 53 years old.

Colonel Anderson came here two years ago from Mobile, Ala., where he, as district engineer, was in charge of maintenance of the harbors at Mobile, Pascagoula, Biloxi and Gulfport and the Warrior river route from Birmingham to Mobile.

He was born in Lexington, Va., the son of William A. Anderson, a former attorney-general of Virginia. He attended Washington and Lee university and the United State Military academy. He was commissioned in 1904.
